

I am the president of WCAL-FM, the radio station of St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minnesota. The station serves the Twin Cities area and adjacent towns. The FCC's adoption of SAC standards will expand our station's opportunities to provide community service programming. Our station is unique, and offers services not found elsewhere on the radio dial. SAC will permit us the opportunity of increasing our audience.